

What is the NAMI Homefront Education Program?

NAMI Homefront is a free, six-session education program for family, friends and partners of Military Service Members and Veterans with mental health conditions. It focuses on the unique needs of military and veteran communities, such as post-deployment and post-discharge transitions.

The course is designed to help family members understand and support their loved one while maintaining their own well-being. The trained teachers of this course are also family members who have experience with military culture and know what it's like to have a loved one living with a mental health condition.

2018 Class Scheduled:
Thursdays, March 29 - May 3 — 6:00 - 8:30 pm

Participant Perspectives

NAMI Homefront is an adaptation of the evidence-based NAMI Family-to-Family Education Program, which has been used in VA health facilities since the late 1990s.

"You realize that he will never be the same having been through war. I learned how to treat him more as an adult than as a hurt child."

— Mother of a Veteran after graduating from a NAMI Family-to-Family class held at the VA in Ohio
